Highest Quality Customer Service

The most reliable and efficient used cooking oil recycling service in the Rocky Mountain region, recycOil® combines the highest quality customer service with our proprietary geographic-information-system (GIS) pick-up scheduling and logistics program. All of our drivers are trained to the highest service standards – we keep an eye on your grease volumes and recycling needs so you can focus on your business!

Cleanest & Most Sanitary Standards

The recycOil® team consistently delivers the cleanest and most sanitary grease recycling service in Colorado and the Rocky Mountain region, minimizing potential health code and environmental violations, as well as reducing safety hazards for your employees. Find out for yourself why recycOil® is the preferred grease recycling service for area restaurants, government facilities, and the Denver Broncos' INVESCO Field at Mile High!

Best Economic Value

Offering the most competitive waste cooking oil rebates for over 5 years, recycOil® consistently delivers the best economic value to each and every customer, whether an international chain, a family-owned restaurant, or a sports venue for 78,000 fans. Discover for yourself how to make the most business-savvy choice with your grease recycling service.

Highest Accountability & Assurance

Providing you maximum peace of mind, recycOil® delivers the highest level of accountability and assurance. We consistently out-perform the competition by going above and beyond on our customer commitments and service agreements. To protect our customers from avoidable safety, hazard, and legal liability, we maintain full insurance coverage. Ask about getting a copy of our insurance certificates.
